American Council on Education (ACE)
ACE offers several leadership and professional development programs and activities, including programs for current (and future) department chairs, other administrative leaders, and women of color. Application deadlines vary.
http://www.acenet.edu/Content/NavigationMenu/ProgramsServices/Leadership/Leadership_ACE.htm

HERS Institutes
Bryn Mawr and University of Denver (Summer Institutes) and Wellesley College
HERS Institutes provide an intensive 12-day curriculum that prepares women faculty and administrators for institutional leadership roles. The Institutes focus on knowledge, skills and perspectives for achieving institutional priorities and maximizing institutional resources. HERS Institute participants work with HERS Faculty and HERS Alumnae to develop the professional development plans and networks needed for advancing as leaders in higher education administration.

The two Summer Institutes—held at Bryn Mawr College the last two weeks of June and at the University of Denver the last week of July and the first week of August—take advantage of the concentrated period of time during the summer for immersion in lectures, readings, group work and individual assignments. The HERS Wellesley Institute, at Wellesley College, takes place in four three-day seminars held across the academic year, two in the fall and two in the winter. This 12-day curriculum builds on HERS activities and assignments spaced over several months of working together.

Bryn Mawr Summer Institute
http://hersnet.org/institutes/bryn-mawr/

University of Denver Summer Institute
http://hersnet.org/institutes/denver-summer-institute/

Wellesley
http://hersnet.org/institutes/wellesley-institute/

Committee on the Advancement of Women Chemists (COACh) COACh has developed a series of workshops on a number of topics in the area of professional development, leadership training, institutional transformation, effecting change and recruiting and retaining a diverse faculty of top scholars. These workshops have been offered to thousands of scientists and engineers (both men and women) at professional meetings, academic, government laboratories and industry over the past 8 years. These workshops target individuals at all levels, from graduate students through upper level administration.

http://coach.uoregon.edu/coach/

Center for Creative Leadership
The Center for Creative Leadership (CCL®) offers an exclusive focus on leadership education and research and unparalleled expertise in solving the leadership challenges of individuals and organizations, equipping clients to through creative leadership. What is creative leadership? It's the capacity to think and act beyond the boundaries that limit our effectiveness. Every leader and organization faces obstacles that are difficult to surmount - from corporate executives confronting the complex global marketplace to educators trying to lift student achievement to nonprofit groups and government agencies addressing critical social issues with tight budgets.

The Women's Leadership Program
http://www.ccl.org/leadership/programs/WLPOverview.aspx

IWL Senior Leadership Program for Professional Women
The Institute for Women's Leadership and the Center for Women and Work at Rutgers University sponsor this program, which consists of several day-long workshops for high-potential women professionals. The program was developed by Brigid Moynahan, president of The Next Level, Inc.

http://iwl.rutgers.edu/programs_elp.html

Simmons School of Management
Simmons School of Management offers a variety of women's leadership development programs throughout the year, including our flagship program, Strategic Leadership for Women. Our programs teach key leadership competencies with additional emphasis on how gender dynamics affect organizational behavior and workplace culture.

http://www.simmons.edu/som/execed/individuals/index.php

American Association of University Professors Summer Institute
The AAUP holds an annual summer institute for members from around the country to sharpen their leadership skills, enhance expertise, and network with AAUP activists. Intensive training workshops will sharpen your leadership and chapter-building skills through discussion, learning, networking and brainstorming with fellow higher education colleagues from across the nation. To be held July 26-29, 2012 at Roosevelt University in Chicago. Information available Jan 2012 at the address provided below.

http://www.aaup.org/AAUP/about/events/past/2011/SI/default.htm

LEAD 21  Application may require nomination and institutional support.
The primary purpose of LEAD21 is to develop leaders in land grant institutions and their strategic partners who link research, academics, and extension in order to lead more effectively in an increasingly complex environment, either in their current position or as they aspire to other positions.

http://www.lead-21.org/program.html

Executive Leadership in Academic Technology and Engineering (ELATE) at Drexel
Application may require nomination and institutional support.
ELATE at Drexel™ is a national leadership development program designed to advance senior women faculty in academic engineering, computer science, and related fields into effective institutional leadership roles within their schools and universities. ELATE is an intensive full-year, part-time fellowship program tailored to the needs of faculty women in engineering and technology. Three in-residence sessions of 4-6 days each are used to enhance knowledge and skills in business practices of higher education, project management with diverse stakeholders, and effective communication in a variety of leadership platforms.

http://drexel.edu/engineering/resources/faculty-staff/ELATE/

Leadership Maine  Application may require nomination and institutional support.

Leadership Maine offers participants a truly unique statewide learning experience, designed to build a pool of talented leaders to shape our state’s future. Participants learn first-hand about the critical issues facing our state through an intensive behind-the-scenes program that provides access to the key community and business leaders. This is done in the company of 35-45 fellow leaders from across the state representing a broad cross section of the economy. Participants are selected for their leadership capacities, talents, and life experiences and all share a core commitment to making Maine a better place in which to live.

http://www.mdf.org/lm_overview.php

Institute for Management and Leadership in Education (MLE)

MLE is designed for experienced administrators responsible for thinking strategically about institutional change agendas and seeking to close the gap between best intentions and realistic goals. MLE also offers an opportunity for mid-career professional assessment and renewal.

http://www.gse.harvard.edu/ppe/programs/higher-education/index.html

Cornell Faculty Leadership & Development Program

The Cornell Faculty Professional Development & Leadership Program offers participants an opportunity to gain professional and leadership skills, reflect on career and personal goals, and connect with colleagues. Case-based and experiential learning help faculty shape their future by enhancing self-awareness about personal style and impact in the unique and inclusive academic environment. Participants will apply their experience and knowledge to situations consistent with challenges in academic institutions today. A colleague feedback process begins during the program and continues after the immersion with a formal 360 degree feedback process followed by three personal coaching sessions to review the data and integrate it with each individual’s personal development plan.

https://www.hr.cornell.edu/life/career/academic_org_develop.html#CALSDev

Women in Science & Engineering Leadership Institute (WISELI)

(University of Wisconsin-Madison)

Searching for Excellence and Diversity and/or Implementing Training for Search Committees.

Because the search process plays a critical role in shaping our faculty and staff for years to come and provides the best opportunity for diversifying our workforce, it is important that we implement effective and efficient recruiting practices and address important contemporary issues of excellence and diversity.

WISELI has developed and implemented workshops that provide search committees with the latest tips and advice for running efficient and effective searches, recruiting excellent and diverse applicants, and conducting fair and thorough reviews of candidates. These workshops are relevant to search committees in all disciplines seeking to diversify their faculty and staff. Workshops can be conducted on our campus from Jan 15 – Aug 15 each year. http://wiseli.engr.wisc.edu/hiring/other-universities.php

Academic Leadership Program
In order to remain viable and competitive, universities must continually invest in their faculty and staff. By leveraging resources and culling the expertise of its member institutions, CIC is able to offer professional development opportunities that are highly relevant and effective. Many of the programs’ nearly 1000 Fellows have gone on to serve with distinction as college presidents, provosts, and deans.

The ALP consists of three seminars hosted by different CIC universities. In addition, ALP Fellows may be required to participate in on-campus activities throughout the academic year that vary by institution. The program is specifically oriented to address the challenges of academic administration at major research universities and to help faculty members prepare to meet them. ALP Fellows are selected by their respective institutions. https://www.cic.net/projects/leadership/alp/introduction

Higher Education Summer Leadership Workshop
This is a week-long retreat to enhance the leadership skills of participants, making them more effective managers and preparing them for future leadership roles in academia. This workshop facilitates exploration of individual leadership and leads to mastery of interpersonal, team and system dynamics.

This offering was developed to facilitate the professional growth of deans, directors and mid-level leaders into administrative leadership roles in the State University of New York system. All events are conducted at the White Eagle Conference Center in Hamilton, New York. http://sunyli.suny.edu/summer-leadership-home/

Higher Education Executive Leadership Academy
The SUNY Executive Leadership Academy is designed to provide provosts, vice presidents and other executive-level academic leaders with the skills needed to advance to, and excel in the most senior level positions in higher education today. The Academy features activities that facilitate development of a personal mission and vision, allow for reflection on the differences between leadership and management, support building a leadership team and manage a demanding professional schedule. A nomination to the SUNY Leadership Institute from your campus president is required. http://sunyli.suny.edu/executive-leadership-home/