The mission of the Page Farm & Home Museum is to collect, document, preserve, interpret and disseminate knowledge of Maine history relating to farms and farming communities between 1865 and 1940, providing an educational and cultural experience for the public and a resource for researchers of this period.

Application Deadline: September 30 for the December fair, which is held annually on the first Saturday of December.

Participation in the Page Museum Holiday Shoppe is by invitation. Space is limited. Priority is given to returning vendors. Thank you for your interest in participating in our program. Please fill out this application for our consideration. The final decision of the Event Coordinator will be based on space availability, best fit, and diversity of products.

Please type or print
Registrant’s name: _________________________________________________

Business name: ___________________________________________________

Street Address: ___________________________________________________

City: ___________________________ State: _________ Zip: _______________

Phone: ___________________________

Email: ___________________________________________________________

Website: __________________________________________________________

Product should be complimentary to the stated mission of the Page Farm and Home Museum and should be a traditional art form, craft or Maine food product, made by you. Because this is a very small show, to reduce competition and redundancy, the Page Farm and Home Museum offers exclusivity to Holiday Shoppe vendors and may refuse product that is too similar to that of another vendor.
Category:

○ Decorative Painting ○ Leather ○ Pottery ○ Metals
○ Fiber ○ Glass ○ Jewelry ○ Wood ○ Photography

○ Edibles (please specify)___________________________________________

○ Other:___________________________________________________________

Please include images of your non-edible product. You may submit images via email to pagefarm@umit.maine.edu

Terms and Conditions: Exhibitor would like to lease a booth(s) at the Holiday Shoppe at the Page Farm and Home Museum on December _____, 2023. In so doing, the Exhibitor agrees to abide by the schedules, rules, and regulations enumerated in this document and agrees that the Producer is responsible for delivering the space contracted for and a good faith effort, as defined by industry standards, to attract attendees to the show and nothing more. If you cannot participate in the fair, after being approved as a vendor, please contact the Event Coordinator by September 30 to allow the Museum to re-book that space. Exhibitor is solely responsible for obtaining any and all state and municipal licenses and certificates necessary to lawfully conduct business in the City of Orono.

Contract Agreement and Insurance Waiver: I hereby release the Page Farm and Home Museum from liability for refunds and of all liability for personal injury and for loss of property due to theft, fire, accident, or any act of God, war, or terrorism. In the event that it is necessary to cancel or change either the location or the dates of the fair, the liability of the PFHM is limited to the refund of applicable fees that have actually been paid by an exhibitor who does not attend as a result. Furthermore, the named applicant understands that contact with him/her will be made at the address and phone number provided above. I have read and agree to the above and all fair rules and instructions including the fact that all merchandise presented at show is handmade by me.

Signature:______________________________________________________

Date:____________