

The Essence of Faith

Representatives of Islam, Judaism, Catholicism, and two different positions of Protestantism will each make a short presentation followed by questions and discussion. Each of these groups has a presence on campus and desires to help students in faith. This program is not a debate but an opportunity to acquire some understanding of different religious positions and an opportunity for those present to question/dialogue.

When: Wednesday, March 30th

Time: 12:00pm-1:00pm

Where: Memorial Union
Bangor Room

Sponsored by
The Religious Affairs Team
Dedicated to serving students

The Essence of Faith

Representatives of Islam, Judaism, Catholicism, and two different positions of Protestantism will each make a short presentation followed by questions and discussion. Each of these groups has a presence on campus and desires to help students in faith. This program is not a debate but an opportunity to acquire some understanding of different religious positions and an opportunity for those present to question/dialogue.

When: Wednesday, March 30th

Time: 12:00pm-1:00pm

Where: Memorial Union
Bangor Room

Sponsored by
The Religious Affairs Team
Dedicated to serving students