

Bylaws of the Phi Kappa Phi in the University of Maine.

---

ART. I.

Name.

The name of this chapter shall be the Phi Kappa Phi in the University of Maine.

ART. II.

Membership.

Honorary and other members of this chapter shall be elected, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the Phi Kappa Phi. Election shall be by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting.

The number of members elected from any senior class shall not exceed ten, not one-fourth of the class. The qualifications of such members shall be good character and reputation, and honor standing, and no member shall be elected whose standing in his class is lower than that of some other member rejected, unless by a vote of two-thirds, the meeting shall decide that the standing records are in error.

Members shall be initiated at the annual meeting, unless ordered otherwise.

ART. III

Officers.

Sect. 1. The officers of this chapter shall be a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected at the annual meeting and shall hold their places for one year or until their successors are elected.

Sect. 2. Their duties shall be those commonly pertaining to their offices.

Sect. 3. The executive committee shall consist of the four officers, and shall have charge of the exercises of each meeting and perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the chapter.

ART. IV.

Meetings.

Sect. 1. Two regular meetings shall be held in each year; (1) on the second Friday in the Spring Term, (2) the annual meeting in Commencement week; other meetings may be called by the president or executive committee.

Sect. 2. At any meeting seven members shall constitute a quorum.

ART. V.

Dues.

The initiation fee shall be $2; $1 to go to the chapter and $1 to the General Treasurer.
