International Affairs majors with a second major may fulfill the requirement with the capstone in that major if it has sufficient content from the thematic concentration's primary field. See Advisor and IA Director for approval.*

Foreign Language Experience

- International Affairs majors for whom English is their native language must take and pass the Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) with a rating of Intermediate (Low, Mid, or High) or better.
- Students are responsible for paying for these tests.
- Minimum preparation for these tests is generally six credits at the 300-level or above in French or Spanish, or in the recommended equivalent in the VOX sequence of Critical Languages on campus.
- Learning abroad experience, including study abroad, also offers opportunities for language training.
- International Affairs students for whom English is not their native language are permitted to meet the language requirement with their TOEFL score, but are encouraged to undertake further foreign language study.
