

*Aldrich, Norton & Ross - a Concert of Experimental and Electronic Music
For Immediate Release*

Lord Hall Gallery proudly presents Aldrich, Norton & Ross - a Concert of Experimental and Electronic Music on October 12 at 4pm. The performance will take place in Lord Hall Gallery alongside the exhibition Nina Elder: HOLD.

Aldrich, Norton & Ross is a trio of Maine-based musicians who perform experimental and electronic music. Featuring N.B.Aldrich (sound recordings), Steve Norton (sound recordings, electronics and reed instruments) and Leslie Ross (bassoon and electronics), AN&R have nearly 90 years of performance experience between them. Using extended instrumental techniques, electronic processing and field recordings, AN&R create improvised sound environments, a hybrid form of music and soundscape, that are rich in texture and subtle in their musicality.

More information about the instrumentalists is available here:
