

Mutual Threads

Senior Capstone Exhibition

For Immediate Release

Lord Hall Gallery proudly introduces Mutual Threads: Senior Capstone Exhibition, a cumulative exhibition from the University of Maine Art Department's graduating class. The exhibition will be on view from November 15, 2024 - January 20, 2025.

Each artist has created and displayed a tapestry of detailed works considering their varied inspirations and influences. Mutual Threads is rooted in the interconnection of each person through individual expression. Although each artist takes a unique focus, Mutual Threads is bound by the unique commonality of human empathy and experience.

This exhibition transcends medium, displaying everything from Intaglio etching to steel sculpture to digital assemblage. The variety only further connects the pieces by displaying each student's personal journey and exploration of media. Although these students have taken the same classes, they each have developed their own artistic language.

In addition to creating artwork for the exhibition, students participated in the preparation, curation, and installation of the show, as well as the promotion, fundraising, and organization of the reception.

Please join us in celebrating the work of these seniors! A reception will be held on November 15th from 5-7 pm, and will include food, refreshments, and music. Lord Hall will be open Monday-Friday from 9-4. All events are free, accessible, and open to the public. Please direct questions to Diana Baumbach, Director of Galleries: diana.baumbach@maine.edu.
