Earn while you learn
Enjoy a fun, flexible job with UMaine Dining

Want to work on campus this fall?

Hit the ground running by applying for a job with UMaine Dining during New Student Orientation.

UMaine Dining is the largest student employer at UMaine. If you are looking to earn money and don’t want to worry about finding a job in the fall, get a head start during Orientation.

Bring the following with you to Orientation:

Two original, unexpired forms of identification (a passport fulfills both requirements)
- One establishing identity (driver’s license, photo ID)
- One establishing employment authorization (Social Security card, birth certificate)

Representatives from Student Employment will be available with information and applications on the second floor in the Collins Center for the Arts.

umaine.edu/dining
The University of Maine is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.