Special Note: In addition to the books listed above, Fogler Library has begun subscribing to the Canadian Publishers Collection of more than 12,000 e-books from the Gibson Library Connection. Records with links to the e-books are updated on a monthly basis in URSUS. The collection includes current in-copyright title from 65 leading Canadian publishers, and new titles are added on a regular basis. The collection contains both titles the library has in bound form and new Canadian materials, particularly in the fields of French- and English-Canadian literature. It is a major addition to Fogler Library's Canadian collection.

Note: This issue of New Canadian Books will be the last to include a list of Canadian documents. As of March 31, 2014 the Canadian federal government ceased publishing its materials in paper format. Canadian government publications will now only be available online and accessed through the Canadian government web site Canada.ca. In response to this change, the Canadian Studies Office and the Cataloging Department have established a process to catalog online Canadian documents, so, in time, Fogler Library will offer access to these materials through records for individual entries in URSUS, the library's online catalog. These records will include the URL for each title, providing direct links to the documents.

New Canadian Books is produced quarterly by the Canadian Studies Office at the Fogler Library, University of Maine, Orono, ME 04469-5729. For more information about this publication please contact Betsy Beattie at the Canadian Studies Office.
