

Killam Canadian Fund

The Killam Canadian Fund was established at UMaine in 2006. It is designated to assist U.S. citizens who are full-time UMaine undergraduates in good standing and in their sophomore, Junior or senior years, who plan to study for one or two semesters including summer term, at a Canadian university of their choice, where they will be enrolled and resident as full-time undergraduates for that period.

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be a U.S. citizen, enrolled at the University of Maine as an undergraduate degree-seeking student
- Must be applying to an approved academic program at a Canadian university
- Must plan to study at the Canadian university for one or two semesters including summer term

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Killam Canadian Fund Application Form
- Transcript – sent to Canadian-American Center, Campus Mail, attention: Betsy Arntzen
- Letter of Recommendation from a UMaine faculty member addressed to Betsy Arntzen, Canadian-American Center (address above) and written on department letterhead
- Essay (one page) to include how you came to this decision, how studying at a Canadian university will advance your academic career, and how it will benefit you in your personal and professional goals.
