UMaine Catering’s professional and courteous staff will give your event the utmost attention on all facets of the planning and execution — from a dinner service for a wedding of 200, a conference luncheon for 100, or a break platter delivery for a meeting of 20.

Our staff will work within your budget to create a menu that indulges your tastes. Wells Conference Center is available to the UMaine community for large on-campus events like meetings and symposiums as well as personal, family events like weddings and reunions.

Morning boost

The Bear’s Den Cafe & Pub in the Memorial Union opens at 7 a.m. and is one of the first places on campus to get coffee. The Cafe & Pub serves Starbucks® coffee and menu items for a quick breakfast.

Midday fuel

UMaine Dining’s 10 campus locations include three all-you-care-to-eat dining halls (open to the UMaine community) and seven retail locations.

From the Bear’s Den food court, to grab-and-go meals or a freshly blended smoothie in the afternoon at Union Central Market, UMaine Dining offers something for everyone.

Dinner options

The Bear’s Den Cafe & Pub, open until 10 p.m. Monday–Friday, serves sandwiches, meals, desserts and drinks in a cozy setting.

For a different dining option, commuters, faculty and staff can choose UMaine’s three all-you-care-to-eat locations, open nightly until 7 or 8 p.m.

Wells Central offers late-night dining Monday–Thursday, 9 p.m.–midnight.

Oakes Room Cafe in Raymond H. Fogler Library is open Monday–Thursday and Sunday until 11 p.m. for coffee, tea, soda, bakery items and grab-and-go meals.
