All listed towns/cities are possible teaching placements. (P) denotes possible field experience practicum placements, especially for elementary and early childhood teacher candidates.

Placement Areas:
Whenever possible, elementary and early childhood education student teachers are placed in the same cohort groups as they were placed during their EDG 400 field experience practicum, although they may request a student teaching placement in the Portland Area Cohort if they meet eligibility requirements.