Student Learning Outcomes — Athletic Training

- Master the knowledge of the five domains of athletic training incorporated in the classroom, laboratory and clinical settings, as provided by the National Athletic Training board of Certification.
- Master the competencies and proficiencies required of an athletic trainer as outlined by the National Athletic Training board of Certification.
- Be fully prepared to sit for the national certification exam to become an entry level certified athletic trainer.