

We urge you to reconsider your decision and to reinstate the Latin major at the University of Maine so that you neither remove your university from consideration by the many high school students who wish to continue their study of Latin in college nor disappoint those who may not have had the option to study Latin before their college years.

Sincerely

Ellen Perry
College of the Holy Cross
Worcester, MA

Jacqueline Carlon
University of Massachusetts, Boston
Boston, MA

Ruth L. Breindel
Moses Brown School
Providence, RI

Jeremiah Mead
Concord-Carlisle High School (retired)
Concord, MA

Lydia B. Batten
Champlain Valley Union High School
Hinesburg, VT

Michael R. Deschenes
Saint Sebastian's School
Needham, MA

Rosemary A. Zurawel
Berwick Academy
South Berwick, ME

Elizabeth Tylawsky
Norwich Free Academy
Norwich, CT

Ed DeHoratius
Wayland High School
Wayland, MA

Teresa Ramsby
University of Massachusetts Amherst
Amherst, MA

Mark Pearsall
Glastonbury High School
Glastonbury, CT

Paul B. Langford, Ph.D.
Phillips Exeter Academy
Phillips, NH

Donna Lyons
Enfield High School (retired)
Enfield, CT
M.A. in Classics, Trinity College, 1974

Nina C. Coppolino
Editor, New England Classical Journal

Emil Penarubia
Boston College High School
Boston, MA

Robin Colby
Messalonskee High School
Oakland, ME

John McVey
The Rivers School
Weston, MA

Margaret Imber
Bates College
Lewiston, ME

Katy Ganino Reddick
Strong Middle School
Durham, CT