

Northeast Archives of Folklore and Oral History
University of Maine
INTERVIEW DEPOSIT AGREEMENT with Restrictions

The Northeast Archives of Folklore and Oral History is a component of Raymond H. Fogler Library Special Collections Department at the University of Maine. Northeast Archives was formally located within the Maine Folklife Center and will continue to serve as its archival repository within the Special Collections Department. The mission of the Maine Folklife Center and the Northeast Archives of Folklore and Oral History and the purpose of our oral history and folklore projects is to collect, preserve, and disseminate information about the history, culture, folklore, and folklife of Maine and Atlantic Canada. In recognition and support of this work the undersigned interviewee and interviewer agree to donate the audio and/or video recordings and/or photographs taken and transcripts resulting from their interviews to the Northeast Archives of Folklore and Oral History. They do so with the understanding that such interview materials, whether conducted for or donated to the Archives or Center, become part of the Archives, and that they will be made available for uses consistent with the University's mission.

We, the undersigned, have read the above. The interviewer affirms that he/she has explained the nature and purpose of this oral history research.
