Interviewer Margaret Adams				Narrator: Various /Depositor:

Description: 0001 Various, interviewed by Margaret Adams for CP 180, spring 1962, Houlton, Maine and Boiestown, New Brunswick. Folklore materials collected as a class project by Margaret Adams in Houlton, Maine, and Boiestown, New Brunswick. Accession includes typewritten stories, songs, jokes, and legends. Songs include an untitled song (“In the Spring of ‘62’?”), “The Letter Edged in Black,” “The Jones Boys,” “The Winter of ‘73” (“McCullom Camp”), and “On the Bridge at Avignon.” Tall tales deal with Tom McKee, a Civil War soldier, and a deer story. Forerunners tell of seeing unexplained lights, bad luck, and other happenings. One sheet lists beliefs. Tales and legends include the legend of the Buck Monument in Bucksport, several haunted house stories, a banshee, premonitions, several devil stories, a Frenchman’s joke about “God Lover Oil,” and a Lubec minister’s scheme for extracting gold from sea water.

Interviewer David Anderson

Narrator: August Nelson, Esther Larson, Mrs.
Edward Espling, Reinhold Anderson,

/Depositor:

Description: 0002 August Nelson, Mrs. Esther Larson, Mrs. Edward Espling, Reinhold Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Mrs. Lawrence Hemberg, Elaine Helstrom, Albin Carlson, and Mrs. Hampy Johnson, interviewed by David Anderson for CP 180, fall 1962, New Sweden, Maine. Swedish and Finnish folklore materials collected as a class project. Typewritten stories relate both to the New Sweden community and to the old country of Sweden. Anderson mentions that he was able to make acquaintances partly because he spoke Swedish. Material includes tales of ghosts and the supernatural; strange occurrences and forerunners; a (tall tale?) pornographic account written in 1900; a poem "Vid Granskogens bryn"; a poem "Near the Evergreen Woods bridge"; hägring (an illusion or "something you see but don't see"); a folk hero "Sven Duva"; and superstitions.

Song 1: "Among the Pines of Maine," by Ed.W. Rand. Mr. Rand worked in the logging woods starting when he was 18 (1897). Song about longing for home as are several others by this singer. e.s. "The Girl I loved....." and "Down on the Farm". It seems to be a theme, perhaps because these songs were sung in a lumber camp. Song 2: "The Girl I Loved in Sunny Tennessee," by Ed. W. Rand. He said that every night the men would ask him to sing and that they always requested this song as the last number.
