

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2426 Irene Dysart, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes for AY 425, fall 1995, at Dysart's home in Dixmont, Maine. Dysart discusses family history; information on operation and development of Dysart's Truck Stop.

Text: 91 pp. total: 66 pp. transcript, notes

Recordings: mfc_na2426_c1473_01&02, mfc_na2426_c1474_01&02, mfc_na2426_c1475_01&02
166 minutes

Photos: P 7258 - P 7262, P 7763 - P 7765

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2481 Arthur Hill, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, September 22, 1996, at his home in East Conway, New Hampshire. Hill discusses his family background; his work life in South Chatham, New Hampshire and out-of-state; his experience logging; farming; driving a milk truck; working at the North Fryeburg Corn Shop; the Grange; the Red Men's Club.

Text: 43 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2481_c1557.1_01&_02, mfc_na2481_c1557.2_01 118 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2482 Clara Thurston and Harold Thurston, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, September 21, 1996, at their home in East Conway, New Hampshire. The Thurstons discuss Clara's family background; the Hills from South Chatham; Harold's family background; the Clarks from Chatham, the Thurstons from Chatham and Stow; Clara's childhood in North Fryeburg; her father's working life; the social life of her grandparents; Harold's life as a farmer; Harold managing the North Fryeburg Corn Shop; how and why agriculture changed in the area.

Text: 51 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2482_c1558.1_01&_02, mfc_na2482_c1558.2_01 130 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2483 Harold Andrews and Winnie Andrews, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, March 16, 1996, at their home in North Chatham, New Hampshire. The Andrews discuss his family's background; logging; working at mills; dairy farming; working out; trapping; searching for minerals; growing up "near the end of the road" (southern part of Evans North); Winnie's training and work as a nurse.

Text: 50 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2483_c1559.1_01&02, mfc_na2483_c1559.2_01 116 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2484 David Emerson, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, March 3, 1996, at his home in North Conway, New Hampshire. Emerson discusses his family's early background in Chatham and Stow; his genealogy; the history of the Emerson farm in Stow; the differences between the generations; social life in the towns.

Text: 44 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2484_c1560.1_01&02, mfc_na2484_c1560.2_01 105 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2485 Stephen Eastman and Jean Eastmen, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, March 17, 1996, at their home in North Chatham, New Hampshire. The Eastmans discuss his grandparent's generation; his grandfather's diaries throughout his life; family life; local logging; local farming; his grandfather's decision to sell the farm in 1917.

Text: 46 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2485_c1561.1_01&02, mfc_na2485_c1561.2_01 105 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2488 Barbara McAlister Eastman, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, November 11, 1996, at the town library in Chatham, New Hampshire. Eastman discusses her childhood in Stow, New Hampshire; her father's work for different lumber companies, including N. T. Fox; her first Chatham house with her husband Frank in logging camp buildings; her knowledge of local history that she's acquired over the years.

Text: 33 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2488_c1565.1_01&02, mfc_na2488_c1565.2_01&_02 130 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2489 Mildred Hill Heath, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, October 20, 1996, at her home in East Conway, New Hampshire. Heath discusses her upbringing by her grandparents and aunt in South Chatham and Fryeburg, New Hampshire; the neighborhood and changes; her education at Green Hill; business school in Portland, Maine.

Text: 37 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2489_c1566.1_01&02, mfc_na2489_c1566.2_01 121 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2490 Ruby Waston and Merle Waston, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, September 21, 1996, at their home in Stow, Maine. The Watsons discuss her mother and grandmother's lives; her childhood on the Bryant farm in Stow; sharing family chores among farms; his grandparent's social life in North Fryeburg; his work as a truck driver.

Text: 44 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2490_c1567.1_01&2, mfc_na2490_c1567.2_01 117 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2491 Jean Bryant, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, November 2, 1997, at her home in Stow, Maine. Bryant discusses her life with her husband on the Bryant homestead; her father's experiences as a trapper; their social life in North Fryeburg and Stow.

Text: 21 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2491_c1568_01, mfc_na2491_c1568_02 65 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2493 Herb Eastman, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, September 28, 1996, at his home in Chatham, New Hampshire. Eastman discusses his grandfather Eastman's move into town from neighboring Bartlett; his grandfather's career as a respected carpenter and farmer; logging operations, how his grandfather built a snow-roller; how to build a skid road; his and his father's work on local and state highways.

Text: 37 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2493_c1570.1_01&02, mfc_na2493_c1570.2_01 113 minutes

NAFOH ACCESSION ABSTRACTS

2494 Anna Chandler, interviewed by Mary Ellen Barnes, September 28, 1996, at her son Robert Chandler's home in Lovell, Maine. Chandler discusses her childhood in North Chatham; working and playing on the farm; the Eagle Grange; working at the Royce House, a boarding house owned by her husband's family; selling baked goods, milk, and cream to the Appalachian Mountain Club and others.

Text: 38 pp. transcript

Recording: mfc_na2494_c1571.1_01&02, mfc_na2494_c1571.2_01&02 126 minutes