The University of Maine follows civil and University of Maine System COVID-19 health and safety guidance. All those attending UMaine commencement ceremonies in May, including graduates, will be asked to show evidence of vaccination, or documentation of a negative COVID-19 PCR or antigen test within 72 hours of arrival, or documentation of a positive COVID test within 90 days of arrival, including the required five-day isolation. Face coverings are recommended, but are optional.

Guests and graduates who are COVID-19 positive on the day of the ceremonies are asked not to come to campus. Anyone who is positive on-site will be asked to leave campus for the health and safety of the UMaine community.

The latest UMaine COVID-19 health and safety guidance is online: umaine.edu/return.

GRADUATE CANDIDATES: WHAT TO EXPECT

Graduate candidates must pre-register to participate in ceremonies. Refer to umaine.edu/graduate/graduate-commencement for additional information.

On May 6

Graduates are expected to report to the New Balance Field House by 3:00 p.m. on May 6. Enter through the doors under the big M. Regalia obtained through the Bookstore must be worn in order to participate in ceremonies.

- Bring or wear the cap and gown (regalia) to the Field House
- Bring the hood for your discipline with you to the Field House
- Drape the hood over your left arm
- The tassels on your cap are to the left

Do not bring personal belongings to the Field House - the University is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

In the Field House

1. Receive your COVID-19 clearance wristband. All attendees will need to show evidence of vaccination, or documentation of a negative COVID-19 PCR or antigen test within 72 hours of arrival, or documentation of a positive COVID test within 90 days of arrival, including the required five-day isolation.
2. Obtain your white reader card with your name, degree, and advisor
3. Master's/CAS/EdS graduates will line up with their college
4. Doctoral candidates will line up with the other doctoral candidates

We begin marching at 3:50 p.m. Graduates will be led through the center aisle of the Alfond Arena to their seats. If the ceremony has already begun, find an usher to escort you to a seat. Once the ceremony begins, University staff will indicate when to go on stage.

During the Ceremony

- University staff will indicate when to go on stage
- Take the white reader card and your hood with you on stage
- Leave your personal belongings and the program at your seat
- Hand the white reader card to the reader
- Walk to the hooding area and present your hood
- The photographer will take your picture as you are hooded, remember to smile!
- Proceed to pick up your diploma
- Continue off stage
- Return to your seat as directed by the University staff
- Remain seated for the entire ceremony out of courtesy to your fellow graduates
