Weekly Academic Writing Group

Writing a term paper? Working on your thesis or dissertation? Having trouble finding the time to write? Structuring time for academic writing can be difficult, so don’t do it alone!

We will meet weekly. At the beginning of each session, we will tell each other our writing goals and update on progress.

Sundays 3-5pm, Stodder Hall Room 57

We will use the Pomodoro technique (pomodorotechnique.com):

- Writing for 25 minutes at a time without other distractions
- Short break, chat, eat a snack
- Back to writing
- Continue for rest of session and end with a recap with each other

Group runs from 9/15/19 - 12/8/19

Open to ALL UMaine graduate students
