

University of Maine-University of New Brunswick Annual History Graduate Student Conference

Friday, October 28, 2016

6:00pm to 7:00pm	Registration and Dinner Bangor Room, Memorial Union
7:00pm to 8:30pm	Keynote Address by Dr. Sasha Mullally of the University of New Brunswick Bangor Room, Memorial Union

Saturday, October 29, 2016

8:30am to 9:00am	Registration Bangor Room, Memorial Union
9:00am to 10:00am	Twentieth Century Environmental Issues <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Ian Jesse, University of Maine "Let the Poor Beasts Alone": Caribou Reintroduction and Public Environmental Attitudes in Maine, 1986-1993 ❖ Courtney Mrazek, University of New Brunswick "The Canso Causeway: Social, Economic, and Medical Implications in the Twentieth Century" ❖ Eileen Hagerman, University of Maine "In A League of His Own: How 'Mr. Green River Valley' Built a Dam, Busted a Union, and Hauled Paradise Away"
10:00am to 11:00am	Pre-Confederation Borderlands Studies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Patrick Callaway, University of Maine "Replacing the United States in the British Atlantic: The Plans, the Possibilities, and the Problems of Canadian Grain Farming, 1784-1815" ❖ Daniel Soucier, University of Maine "War upon the French, the Fishermen, and the Fishery: Razing Crops, Cattle, and Built Environment during the Gulf of St. Lawrence Campaign, 1758" ❖ Zachary Tingley, University of New Brunswick "Littoral Space, the Lighthouse and its Imperial Meaning in New Brunswick, 1793-1867"
11:00am-11:15am	Break- Light Refreshments will be provided
11:15am-12:30pm	Transference of Knowledge and Memory <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Justus Hillebrand, University of Maine "There and Back Again: Tracing the Negotiations of Agricultural Knowledge between Center and Periphery in Mid-Nineteenth-Century New England."

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ John Leroux, University of New Brunswick "Art for a Province, Art for the People: the 1967 Centennial Building murals 50 years on" ❖ Greg Lubrano, University of Maine "Betrayal of Precedents: Personal Correspondence and the Rise of Partisanship in the Early Republic" ❖ James During, Saint Mary's University "The Moving Wall and Dynamic Sites of Memory: Space, Place, and Absence in the Commemoration of the Vietnam War"
12:30pm to 1:30pm	Lunch Break- Lunch will be provided. The Hudson Museum and Page Farm and Home Museum will be available to tour at this time.
1:30pm to 2:30pm	Religious and Social Violence and Prejudice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Tyler Cline, University of Maine "A Dragon, Bog-Spawned, Is Now Stretched O'er This Land": Catholic Conspiracies, Americanism Under Siege, and the Maine Ku Klux Klan in the 1920s" ❖ Kaley Dietrich, Florida Gulf Coast University "Manifestations of Feminism in Ireland: Late Nineteenth to Early Twentieth Century" ❖ Jessi Taylor, University of New Brunswick "Miscible Violence: Short Term Impacts of Religious Violence on the Use of Sexual Violence in the Bosnian War"
2:30 to 2:45pm	Break- Light refreshments will be provided
2:45 to 3:45pm	Religion and Literature <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ Elisa Sance, University of Maine "Public schools and the francophone population of the Madawaska region in Maine and New Brunswick prior to WWI" ❖ Keith Grant, University of New Brunswick "Book Culture and Community in British North America" ❖ Brittany Goetting, University of Maine "'Bucking the Norm': Challenges to Conventional Educational Works through the Children's Primers of Jonathan Fisher of Blue Hill, Maine and Joseph Emerson of Beverly, Massachusetts"
3:45pm to 4:30pm	The Future of the University of Maine-University of New Brunswick Annual Graduate Student Conference Please join us after the presentations at the Bear Brew Pub

We wish to thank our generous sponsors helping to make this conference a success. We are incredibly appreciative of the donations from the University of Maine History Department, the Canadian-American Center, the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the Office of the President, the Department of Student Affairs, the University of Maine Humanities Center, the Office of Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost, Cross Insurance Agency, Changing Seasons Federal Credit Union, and Bangor Federal Credit Union.