

THE UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Charles C. Mann Lecture

Tuesday, March 27th at 7:00 p.m.

Hutchins Hall
Collins Center for the Arts
Orono ME, 04469

Free and open to the public

Charles C. Mann is the author of 1491: New Revelations of the Americas Before Columbus, which won the U. S. National Academy of Sciences' Keck Award for best book of the year and 1493: Uncovering the World That Columbus Created, a New York Times bestseller. 1491 combines science, history, and archaeology to radically transform our understanding of the Americas before European contact. 1493 looks at the aftermath of exchange—plants, animals and microbes—and the impact of contact on Europe, China and Africa. Mann's works are thought provoking and inform not just the past, but the future.

Mann's books 1491; 1493 and his latest book, The Wizard and the Prophet (2018) will be available for sale and autographing following the lecture.

Sponsored by:

Alton '38 and Adelaide Hamm Campus Activity Fund; Anthropology Department; Climate Change Institute; College of Liberal Arts and Sciences; Cultural Affairs/Distinguished Lecture Series Fund; David E. Shoemaker Fund; Honors College; Hudson Museum; Native American Programs; Phi Kappa Phi; SPIA School of Policy and International Affairs; Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost's Office; Vice President for Research

www.umaine.edu/hudsonmuseum • 207.581.1904

The University of Maine is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.
For more information or to request a disability accomodation, call 207.581.1226.