About
The University of Maine Intensive English Institute offers custom, short-term, small-group programs with flexible dates, length, content and focus. Programs can be designed for groups of 10 or more participants. Start and end dates can be chosen by the group.

Features
• Short term (2-3 weeks)
• 3-5 hours daily
• Specialized curricula
• Flexible content and focus
• Weekend trips and activities

Sample programs
• Training workshops for English teachers
• English training for university students and/or professors
• English learning combined with cultural enrichment and adventure

Cost
The cost for custom, short-term group programs varies. In general, UMaine IEI charges $1,500 per student for a two-week program, and $2,225 per student for a three-week program. However, rates are negotiable based on the number of participants and training needs. The per-student cost includes room and board, meals, materials and activities. Students are responsible for their own visa and health insurance costs.
