Opportunities for Study Abroad

There are two programs which provide exciting opportunities for Pre-law majors to study abroad: Lancaster University Law School at www.lancs.ac.uk/fass/law is one of the country's top 20 law schools, with an outstanding reputation for its research, which ranges from traditional 'black letter' law to critical, socio-legal, and interdisciplinary research. It the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise, 90% of Lancaster University Law School's research was rated as being of international standing.

The University of East Anglia (UEA) at www.uea.ac.uk, offers law courses, most of which run for a full academic year, for example, Common Law and Civil Liberties and Human Rights. Semester-long courses are also available:

Sample of Course Offerings (Fall Semester)
- Constitutional & Administrative Law
- English Legal Process
- The Law of Restitution
- Internet Law
- Crime & Sentencing
- Public Law
- International Law
- Intro. to Comparative Law

Sample of Course Offerings (Spring Semester)
- Criminology
- UK Human Rights
- Contract Law
- US Legal Education & Profession
- International Human Rights
- Gender and the Law
- Courts, Law, & Politics in Comparative Law
- European Convention on Human Rights

Top Reasons to Study Abroad

You will:
- change your life
- explore & grow as an individual
- learn about yourself & make new friends
- learn different perspectives
- find out what is beyond your borders
- be amazed by places and people of different values, beliefs, and celebrations

This academic experience will enable you to:
- earn university credit
- fulfill major and minor requirements
- supplement your major by selecting courses not offered here

Office of International Programs

Location: 100 Winslow Hall
Phone: 207-581-1509
E-Mail: studyabroad@umit.maine.edu

Last Updated on August 29, 2012
Lancaster University

WHY STUDY ABROAD IN LANCASTER

Lancaster University is located in the city of Lancaster, a picturesque city of about 50,000 on the west coast of England, lying just south of Lake District National Park. It is set in parkland, surrounded by beautiful countryside with a view extending to the sea. The convenient location of the university offers students both easy access to the thriving city of Lancaster 3 miles away and the advantages of a friendly, safe, and compact campus.

There are plenty of things to do and places to see in the city of Lancaster, yet it maintains its small-town-friendly atmosphere. Lancaster has a variety of restaurants and bistros and plenty of cute shops, parks, and walking paths. Liverpool and Manchester are close by, and London is three hours away by train. Travel to Ireland and throughout Europe is quick and easy. Students often travel on weekends and vacations.

University of East Anglia (UEA)

THE CITY OF NORWICH

UEA is located just outside the city of Norwich, only an hour from Cambridge and less than two hours from London. There are a lot of places to see in historical Norwich, such as the Norman castle and cathedral and plenty of medieval buildings. There are also oodles of fun dance clubs, restaurants, shopping centers, and theaters. Norwich is also known for its tranquil side: gardens, riverside paths, parks, cobbled streets, museums, and art galleries. This city has a wonderful medieval/modern blend.

HOUSING

UEA guarantees campus accommodation to all UMaine exchange students. Accommodation in all University residences is self-catering (i.e. a meal plan is not included). Each residence contains several fully-furnished, centrally heated, single-occupancy rooms grouped round a shared kitchen. Kitchens come equipped with a fridge, freezer, and oven or microwave, and residents provide their own linens, or bedding packs can be purchased from the Accommodation Office.