

Parapodium along both sides of the body, with two finger-like gills per parapodium

Body is segmented

Head is pointed, with small antennae at the top of the head

Adults can grow up to around 15 inches long.

Native

Bloodworm

Glycera dibranchiata

Lives in subtidal zones in gravel/cobble, sand, mud, and on seagrass beds.

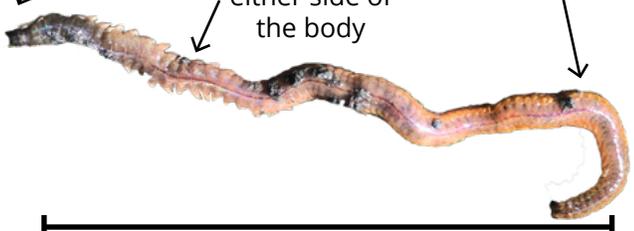

Red or pink colored

Has two antennae and four eye spots on head

Body segmented, and thicker on one end than the other

Distinct parapodia on either side of the body

Adults grow up to around 12 inches long, but have been seen up to 36 inches.

Native

Sandworm

Nereis virens

Lives in estuaries, intertidal, or subtidal zones in sand, mud, or hard rocky substrates.

Iridescent color

Tail is often missing and looks like a bump

One end of body is rounded, the other end is flattened

Body is smooth

Adults can grow up to around 48 inches long and 1/2 inch wide.

Native

Milky Ribbon Worm

Cerebratulus lacteus

Lives in estuaries, intertidal, or subtidal zones in sand and mud.

Brown, pink, or white colored