

Young Authors Camp Release and Permission to Publish

I hereby grant permission and authorize the University of Maine acting through the Maine Writing Project to make use of, license, or assign the use of my writing or other work generated at its Young Authors Camp in the camp anthology or related publications, including anthology compilations or promotional materials about the camp. I understand that my work may be used in whole or in part and that credit will be given whenever possible. I understand that I retain copyright ownership of this writing or other work.

Camper Signature

Date

Please Print Camper Name

Important: If the student is not 18 years old, a parent must give permission by signing below.

I have read this form and give permission for my child's work to be used in the ways described above.

Parent or Guardian's Signature

Date

Please Print Camper Name