What is a Young Authors Camp?

A 5-day, 18-hour, experience that inspires creative thinking and writing. Campers explore fiction and nonfiction, poetry, memoir, and more in a writer's workshop model that draws on student interests, experiences and wonderings, as well as their love of learning.

Camp time is spent actively engaged in writing. If your son or daughter is willing to try new things, enjoys making friends, likes writing and wants to learn more about it, this may be the chance to take that writing to a new level!

Who teaches at Young Authors Camp?

All instructors are certified teachers as well as teacher-consultants of the Maine Writing Project who have completed a six-credit graduate course in writing and the teaching of writing at the University of Maine.

MWP is dedicated to improving writing and learning across the curriculum at all grade levels. We believe that all of us -- students and teachers alike -- learn to write by writing. Come write with us!
