

Please join us to honor the statewide winners of the 2015 National History Day contest for students in grades 6-12.

Cultural Building Atrium
(Library, Museum, Archives Building)
3:30-4:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 7
State House Complex
230 State Street, Augusta

Free event and reception hosted by the Maine State Library, Museum, and Archives

All NHD students, teachers, and parents (not just prizewinners) are also invited to tour the Maine State Museum free of charge before or after the reception. A 2014 first place in the nation exhibit by a Maine student will be on display at the Museum.

For information about local arrangements, please contact the Museum's chief educator Joanna Torow (Joanna.Torow@Maine.gov, 287-6608).

Maine National History Day is a statewide partnership led by four organizations. For more information about NHD, please visit our website <http://umaine.edu/history/national-history-day> or contact State Coordinator John Taylor at john.m.taylor@maine.edu or 207.474.7133.