

“People who only know about western science who don't have the knowledge of TEK I feel like they kinda have a disadvantage because they don't know how important those things really are . To me, I can see the other half of it were some body who only knows the western science half might just see an object where I kinda see the life form and how important it is to us.”

*WaYS student
Senior, UMO*

