

Modern Languages &

Classics

SCHOLARSHIPS

Joseph R. Dougherty '26 Language Scholarship: Provides scholarship aid for deserving undergraduate students studying a foreign language. (Contact Office of Student Financial Aid)

Slott Family French Immersion Fund: Provides support for study abroad for majors in French, Romance Languages, and International Affairs-Language, Culture, & the Humanities (French).

Barbara McCarthy Allen '71 French Immersion Fund: Provides support for travel and living expenses in a French-speaking country for majors in French, Romance Languages, and International Affairs - Language, Culture & the Humanities (French).

Classes that provide travel opportunities are also available, including FRE 397 May Term in Quebec and FRE 398 Western France.

Available programs include: B.A. in French, Spanish, Romance Languages, International Affairs. M.A. in French, M.A.T. in French or Spanish. Minors in French, Spanish, and Professional Languages. Certificates of Proficiency are also available in French, Spanish, and German. Beginning courses available in Arabic, Chinese, Hebrew, Latin, German (Ger. also in intermediate) and American Sign Language. Self-instructional courses in spoken Irish Gaelic, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, and Russian, are available through Critical Languages (VOX). For more information, contact Jane Smith, jsmith@maine.edu, or call 207.581.2075.