

Joseph Hendron

Captain, United States Marine Corps

Marine Officer Instructor

Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps

Maine Maritime Academy, University of Maine, Husson University

Captain Hendron was born and raised in Rochester, New York. He entered the Marine Corps through Platoon Leader's Course in Quantico, Virginia. He was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant (2ndLt) in September, 2019. In October of 2019, he attended the Basic School, A Company. After graduation, he attended Force Fitness Instructor Course at the Force Fitness Readiness Center of Excellence. Subsequently he attended the Logistics Officer Course at Camp Johnson, North Carolina.

Upon completion of the Logistics Officer Course, 2ndLt Hendron was assigned to 1st Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion at Camp Pendleton, California. From October 2020 to January 2021, 2ndLt Hendron served as the Maintenance Management Officer. Showing promise in the logistics field, he was transitioned to the billet of Assistant Battalion Logistics Officer where he would serve until August of 2022. An opportunity arose for a Maritime Prepositioning Force offload exercise in Saudi Arabia and 1stLt Hendron volunteered as Assistant Officer in Charge. After returning from the exercise, 1stLt Hendron rotated into the Motor Transport Officer billet at 1st Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion.

In April of 2023, 1stLt Hendron received orders to report to the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps, Maine Maritime Academy. Captain Hendron is currently serving as the Marine Officer Instructor.
