

The University of Maine's NROTC Preparatory Program

The Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps Preparatory Program (NPP) is a University of Maine and NROTC initiative to provide a Navy commissioning opportunity for highly motivated and exceptional high school students. NPP prepares Midshipmen to succeed in the Naval ROTC curriculum through academic success, exposure to military lifestyle, and an integrated transition into the ROTC culture. We are looking for the best and brightest to join our team. The NROTC program at University of Maine prides itself on our family based team mentality, and we invite you to join in that experience as a NPP Midshipman. Approved applicants will receive the below benefits and the opportunity to become a future naval leader in America's Navy combat team.

Benefits:

The University of Maine will provide tuition, fees, and room & board for the NPP year. Provided the Midshipman meets criteria listed below, they will be awarded a National NROTC scholarship to the University of Maine at the conclusion of their first year. This NROTC scholarship will provide up to four additional years of tuition & fees to attend UMaine. During the four years of NROTC, the University of Maine will provide for a double occupancy room and the unlimited flex meal plan. A complete full ride!

Requirements:

- By the end of the spring semester, pass the Navy Physical Readiness Test with a Good Low or higher in each category and be within Navy established height, weight and body fat standards
- By the end of the spring semester, receive a cumulative 2.8 Grade Point Average or higher
- Receive a favorable endorsement from the Professor of Naval Science at the conclusion of year one as a Midshipman with no major or pattern of minor disciplinary actions.
- Pass all Naval Science courses taken during your preparatory year (NAV100, NAV101, NAV202)
- By last day of classes of the fall semester, be medically cleared by the Department of Defense Medical Review Board
- Select a Tier 1 or Tier 2 major and commit to graduation with a Tier 1 or Tier 2 major (See list of majors on UMaine NPP Website)
- Commit to graduation from the University of Maine
- Live in University of Maine Housing provided housing (In order to receive Room and Board Scholarship)
- Failure to adhere to the NPP requirements, UMaine may choose to recoup used scholarship money.

The leadership of our Naval ROTC team stands ready to assist you should you choose to partake in our program. If you would like additional information, or have questions about becoming a naval officer, do not hesitate to call us. Our point of contact is Gunnery Sergeant Titus Baskerville, who can be reached at titus.baskerville@maine.edu or at 207-581-1551.