

University of Maine School of Nursing

Advanced Nursing Education Workforce Program (ANEW)

Traineeship for Family Nurse Practitioner Students

Become a Family Nurse Practitioner

Address Maine's rural healthcare provider workforce shortage with up to $25,000/year in financial support or more when you serve as part-time faculty for the BSN program.

---

The ANEW Program's Mission:

Increase the number of primary care nurse practitioners prepared to provide high-quality care, including mental health and substance use disorder services, in medically underserved and rural communities.

---

Who is eligible to be an ANEW trainee?

Any Bachelor prepared Registered Nurse in Maine and eligible to work in the United States.

---

Financial Support for Trainees:

- Up to $25,000/year grant
  - Tuition and fees covered
  - Living expenses support (e.g., childcare, housing, health insurance, travel, learning materials/textbooks)

Ongoing Funding Requirements:

- Complete educational requirements (e.g., seminars, webinars, conferences, clinical hours, etc.)
- Maintain good academic standing per the School of Nursing Graduate Student Handbook
- Complete surveys and data requests for up to one year after graduation

Join ANEW at UMaine, Empower Your Future

For more information contact us at 207.581.2592, email sean.sibley@maine.edu or visit umaine.edu/nursing/

This Advanced Nursing Education Workforce (ANEW) Program is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $485,641 with 0% financed with non-governmental sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government.

In complying with the letter and spirit of applicable laws and pursuing its own goals of diversity, the University of Maine System does not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, transgender status, gender, gender identity or expression, ethnicity, national origin, citizenship status, familial status, ancestry, age, disability physical or mental, genetic information, or veterans or military status in employment, education, and all other programs and activities. The University provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities upon request. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity, 5713 Chadbourne Hall, Room 412, University of Maine, Orono, ME 04469-5754, 207.581.1226, TTY 711 (Maine Relay System).