

UMaine Capital Projects Update: October 2024

Capital Projects:

- Shawn Walsh Alford Arena renovations and additions are underway. Project is currently on schedule and on budget. Project anticipated completion date is fall of 2025.
- The design of the new Morse Arena is in the first of three phases, anticipated groundwork to begin in the fall of 2025 for utilities and full construction spring of 2026.
- The design for the new soccer complex and track and field complex is in the final stages, construction anticipated to start possibly in November of this year depending on the weather.
- The Mahaney Dome project is completed, the connector between the dome and Memorial Gym is in the scoping phase, potential construction next summer.
- The Sawyer & Hitchner '87 Wing HVAC projects are currently in design and anticipated to start work next year.
- Bennett Hall Lecture Wing HVAC and Bennett Hall steam repair projects will be going out to bid this fall with work anticipated for next summer.
- Witter Farm Robotic Dairy Facility is under construction, anticipated completion early 2025.
- Sustainable Aquaculture Workforce Innovation Center (SAWIC) is in design with construction anticipated to start next spring.
- The nursing Skills lab and renovations in Dunn Hall are in punch list.
- The Food Innovation Lab project within the office wing of Keyo is in the progress of awarding a design firm with construction anticipated for next summer. Planning for relocation of existing staff in Keyo is underway.
- AMC Renovations, New Student Success Center and Industry 4.0 are in the planning phase to start work later this fall.
- GEM groundwork is underway with construction anticipated to start as early as late fall of this year.
- ASCC Secure Textiles Lab phase 2 is in construction.
- Wells Common Sodexo project is underway and interior work is anticipated to be completed this fall.
- The UMEC project is in design with construction anticipated as early as next spring or summer.
- The electrical infrastructure project will be starting very soon. Traversing of the campus will be affected by brief road and sidewalk closures as well as portions of the Belgrade Parking Lot.
- The Lighting upgrade project is in progress and anticipated to be completed at the end of October with the last project within the Fogler Library.

- Machias Powers Hall replacement of the ADA ramp is in scheduling for work to be completed this fall.
- Machias Reynolds Gym flooring and bleacher replacement is underway.
- Machias Powers Hall building envelope work is in planning, anticipated to start next year.
- Machias stormwater management plan is wrapping up and has been submitted to the state for approval. Once approved, work to address stormwater will proceed next year.
- Phase 1 of the Big Idea moves continue and on schedule.