

Communications & Media Intern

Company: Cutler for Maine

Location: Portland, ME or Bangor, ME

Contact with questions: Nate Wildes, Technology & Media Coordinator – nwildes@cutlerformaine.com

Requested Materials: Cover letter and resume

Deadline: Applications will be considered on a rolling basis

Eliot Cutler's 2014 campaign for Governor of Maine is looking for proactive, creative and detail-oriented individuals to join the communications and media team. They will take on a number of different responsibilities including: creating and curating multimedia content (including video, photography and graphic design) for online distribution, tracking and organizing online and offline media content relevant to the campaign, preparing copy for offline and online use, analyzing data to measure the success of online advertising campaigns, and/or assisting with social media management. Specific responsibilities will be assigned based on ability, experience, interest and need. Please outline any special skills or interests in your cover letter.

We are looking for someone to begin working on a part-time basis as soon as possible. Time commitment would ideally include 4-6 hours per day, 3 days per week to our office in downtown Portland or Bangor.

This position offers the opportunity to work with a dynamic, energetic and hardworking team that encourages, critical thinking, creativity, and being proactive. Through his/her work with the communications and media team, the intern will have the opportunity to apply their skills in a real and tangible way, build their artistic, marketing or writing portfolio and be a part of the most cutting edge statewide communications effort in Maine's history. This is a unique opportunity for anyone interested in working in a fast-paced, fun environment, regardless of prior or long-term interest in political campaigns, while gaining real world experience and making a positive difference in the state.