THE PRESIDENTIAL OUTSTANDING TEACHING AWARD
Nomination Form

Since 1991, in recognition of the mission of inspiring and dedicated teaching at the University of Maine, the President has annually presented the Presidential Outstanding Teaching Award to a University of Maine faculty member who propels students into new fields of learning and promotes interdisciplinary understanding.

Outstanding teaching helps students develop their creative abilities, communication, and critical thinking skills, and understanding of traditions in ethics and rationality within the arts, sciences, and professions. Tenured UMaine and Cooperative Extension faculty and full-time lecturers (in their sixth year of service or beyond) are eligible for this award. The recipient receives a medallion and monetary award.

Nominations should be submitted to Amber Thompson (amber.thompson1@maine.edu or 1-1516) in the Office of the President, 200 Alumni Hall on or before February 10, 2017. Please contact Amber if you have any questions.

Name of Nominee: ___________________________________________________________

Title: ___________________________________________________________________

Department & College: _____________________________________________________

Nominator: __________________________________________________________________

Position: __________________________ Must presently be a member of the UMaine Community

Department & College: _____________________________________________________

Date: _____________________________________________________________________
PRESIDENTIAL OUTSTANDING TEACHING AWARD
Nomination Guidelines

Criteria of excellence

Since 1991, in recognition of the mission of inspiring and dedicated teaching at the University of Maine, the President has annually presented the Presidential Outstanding Teaching Award to a University of Maine faculty member who propels students into new fields of learning and promotes interdisciplinary understanding.

Outstanding Teaching helps students develop their creative abilities, communication, and critical thinking skills, and understanding of traditions in ethics and rationality within the arts, sciences, and professions. Tenured UMaine and Cooperative Extension faculty and full-time lecturers (in their sixth year of service or beyond) are eligible for this award.

Nomination and selection process

- Nomination materials must be submitted to Amber Thompson in the Office of the President by Friday, February 10, 2017.
- The Presidential Teaching Award Committee will review nominations and submit its recommendation to the President via the Senior Associate Provost for Academic Affairs.
- The Award will be announced and presented at the Faculty Recognition Luncheon on the day of Commencement (May 13).

Nomination materials

- A completed Nomination Form. Nominees must be full-time faculty.
- A letter from the nominator (2 pages max.) addressing the nominee’s accomplishments in relation to the specific criteria in the award description.
- A 1-page letter of support from the nominee’s chair, director, or dean.
- Any 1 of the following 4 documents: The nominee’s CV or tenure document or latest post-tenure review or permission for the review committee to access his or her faculty activity reports for the past 5 years.

Please direct questions to Amber Thompson (amber.thompson1@maine.edu or 1-1516) in the Office of the President. Thank you.