THE PRESIDENTIAL RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
Nomination Form

Since 1974, in recognition of the mission to facilitate the research, scholarship, and creative activity of faculty at the University of Maine that results in national and international recognition, the President has annually presented the Presidential Research and Creative Achievement Award to a University of Maine faculty member who has attained such distinction. Tenured UMaine and Cooperative Extension faculty and full-time lecturers (in their sixth year of service or beyond) are eligible for this award.

Internationally-recognized research, scholarship, and creative activity distinguish the University of Maine as the State’s flagship university, where faculty contribute knowledge to issues of local, national, and international significance. The recipient receives a medallion and monetary award.

Nominations should be submitted via InfoReady on or before February 14th, 2020. Please contact Jason Charland, UMS R&D Plan Implementation Director, Office of the President at (jason.charland@maine.edu or 1-2461) if you have any questions.

Name of Nominee: ____________________________________________________________
Title: _____________________________________________________________________
Department & College: _______________________________________________________

Nominator: __________________________________________________________________
Position: ____________________________________________________
Department & College: _______________________________________________________
Date: _____________________________________________________________________
PRESIDENTIAL RESEARCH AND CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
Nomination Guidelines

Criteria of excellence
Since 1974, in recognition of the mission to facilitate the research, scholarship, and creative activity of faculty at the University of Maine that results in national and international recognition, the President has annually presented the Presidential Research and Creative Achievement Award to a University of Maine faculty member who has attained such distinction. Tenured UMaine and Cooperative Extension faculty and full-time lecturers (in their sixth year of service or beyond) are eligible for this award.

Internationally-recognized research, scholarship, and creative activity distinguish the University of Maine as the State’s flagship university, where faculty contribute knowledge to issues of local, national, and international significance.

Nomination and selection process
• Nomination materials must be submitted via InfoReady by Friday, February 14th, 2020.

• The Faculty Research Funds Committee will review nominations and submit its recommendation to the President via the Vice President for Research and Dean of the Graduate School.
• The Award will be announced and presented at the Faculty Recognition Luncheon on the day of Commencement (May 8th, 2020).

Nomination materials
• A completed Nomination Form. Nominees must be full-time faculty.
• A letter from the nominator (2 pages max.) addressing the nominee’s accomplishments in relation to the criteria in the award description.
• A 1-page letter of support from the nominee’s chair, director, or dean.
• Any 1 of the following 4 documents: The nominee’s CV or tenure document or latest post-tenure review or permission for the review committee to access his or her faculty activity reports for the past 5 years.
• At least 1 letter of reference from a qualified external peer (2 pages max.) who can evaluate the major research, scholarship, and creative activity contributions of the nominee. Please provide brief credentials for the external peer reference (250 words or less).

Please contact Jason Charland, UMS R&D Plan Implementation Director, Office of the President at (jason.charland@maine.edu or 1-2461) if you have any questions.