

Pickerings and Carville

Hikel Awards

The Barbara Hikel Award is given by the President of the University of Maine to a University of Maine retiree who, after retirement, provides extraordinary voluntary service to the University of Maine.

Two awards will be presented this year, since no awards were presented in the Covid shortened 2020. The first award is to Marisue and John Pickering, while the second award is to Woody Carville.

The presentations will be made by Phyllis Thibodeau on behalf of the President of the University of Maine.
