Create a legacy. Be a mentor.

Targeted Mentoring Topics
EXAMPLES

RESEARCH
Developing a Research Agenda
Establishing a Research Program/Laboratory
Managing a Research Program/Laboratory
Protecting Research Time
Publishing Scholarly Works
Reinventing: Changing Research Focus
Building your Reputation as a Scholar

TEACHING
Supervising Grad Students & Assistants
Teaching Large Classes
Developing and Teaching on-line Classes
Developing and Teaching Seminar-Style Classes
Integrating your Research into the Classroom
Creating Engaging Assignments
Interactive Teaching Strategies and Methods

SUCCESS IN ACADEMIA
Interdisciplinary Collaborations: The Key to Success
Female Solos: Strategies for Success
Integrating into Male Dominated Disciplines and Departments
Fulfilling the Tripartite Mission of UMaine
Preparing Competitive Grant Applications, including expertise with specific funding agencies:
  • American Historical Association
  • Dept of Education
  • Dept of Energy
  • Dept of Health & Human Services
  • Maine Technology Institute
  • NIFA (USDA)
  • National Endowment for the Arts
  • National Science Foundation
  • SBIR/STTR
  • National Endowment for the Humanities
  • Dept of Commerce
  • Other agencies
  • US Environmental Protection Agency
  • National Institutes of Health
  • Dept of Commerce
  • Other agencies
  • Maine Technology Institute
  • National Science Foundation
  • SBIR/STTR
  • National Endowment for the Humanities
  • Dept of Commerce
  • Other agencies

You can share your personal expertise by focusing on other mentoring topics of your choice.

Simply list your topic(s) on the Mentoring Application in the space provided (OTHER AREAS OF EXPERTISE/MENTORING TOPICS).

For more information about this mentoring program please visit our website: www.umaine.edu/advancerisingtide/mentoring