

Career Recognition Awards 2019-2020

Nominations accepted through Nov. 30, 2019

Acknowledging the significant contributions of accomplished faculty has been shown to inspire peers seeking role models and mentors, and linked to career advancement for faculty at every rank. Recognizing the achievement of senior women faculty is a proven strategy proven for enhancing diversity and fostering inclusive excellence.

The Rising Tide Center is pleased to solicit nominations for the 2019-2020 Career Recognition Award.

Who is eligible?

- Women faculty in any discipline with 10 or more years of service at UMaine
- Current appointment at the rank of associate or full professor
- Continued outstanding contributions to UMaine's tripartite mission
- Nominated by a faculty colleague

How do I nominate someone?

- Complete the simple online nomination form
- Rising Tide staff will contact nominees to verify their wish to be considered for the award, to request a curriculum vita and faculty activity report, and to solicit the names of colleagues who may provide letters of support for the nomination.
- Nomination deadline is November 30, 2019

What are the selection guidelines and criteria?

- Review process includes consideration of all aspects of professional contributions including, but not limited to, grant activity, publication record, mentoring impact, evidence of campus engagement and leadership, peer and student evaluations, constituency and public service/outreach activities, service to their profession and/or discipline, and other career highlights.
- One awardee will be selected by a committee of peers to include the Director of the Rising Tide Center and a minimum of 2 previous Career Recognition award winners
- Winner will be announced in February 2020.
- Public celebration to be scheduled for Spring 2020, based on the availability of the honoree.

Read about previous awardees or nominate a deserving colleague online:

<https://umaine.edu/risingtide/professional-development/career-recognition-awards/>