

Summer 2019

Summer Federal Work-Study Application

What is the Summer Federal Work-Study Program?

The Summer Federal Work-Study program provides students who demonstrate financial need with an opportunity to work during the summer. These funds are intended to assist you with educationally related expenses for the upcoming 2019-2020 academic year. Eligibility is determined using information from your 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

What requirements must I meet to be eligible for Summer Federal Work-Study?

You can apply for the Summer Federal Work-Study program if you meet the following requirements:

1. Enrollment (you must meet one of the following):
 - a. You are enrolled at least half-time for Summer 2019
Undergraduate students = 6 credits
Graduate students = 3 credits
 - b. You are enrolled at least half-time for Fall 2019
2. You must submit a 2018-2019 and 2019-2020 FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov if you have not already done so. You must also provide any supporting documents to the Office of Student Financial Aid upon request.
3. Complete the application on the reverse and return it to the Office of Student Employment.

Where can I work?

- Any department on-campus
- Job listings are available on-line at:

Do I have to enroll for summer in order to receive Summer Federal Work-Study?

You do not need to be enrolled for summer in order to be considered for Summer Federal Work-Study. However, if you are not enrolled for summer, you must be enrolled at least half-time for fall in order to be eligible. Please note that if you are enrolled less than half-time for summer, your financial aid for 2019-2020 may be impacted.
