ARTICLE 1

THE COMMISSION

SECTION 1 - PURPOSE

- A. Shall be required to conduct elections for Student Government executive officers, General Student Senate and any organization recognized by Student Government that requests FEPC assistance in their respective elections.
- B. To ensure the fair, honest and democratic election of all elections conducted.
- C. To receive complaints of alleged election rule violations, investigate, conduct hearings, and report election rule violations to the General Student Senate. D. To print and tally ballots for all elections FEPC shall conduct.
- E. To fairly apportion Student Government voting districts; a process which shall be completed according to the by-laws of the GSS.
- F. To periodically review and recommend changes of these guidelines to the GSS.
- G. To ensure that the highest number of eligible student voters participate in the election.

SECTION 2 - MEMBERSHIP

- A. The membership of the FEPC shall be determined by the fourth week of the Fall semester.
- B. Membership shall be determined by nomination of and election by the GSS.
- C. Membership shall not fall below four members in addition to the chair. If at any time the membership of the FEPC drops below four, the Senate shall fill the vacant spots during the next meeting of the GSS.
- D. A member found to be in violation of these FEPC guidelines shall be removed from the commission by recommendation of the Chair and concurrence of the Student Government President or majority vote of the commission.
- E. Paid employees of UMSG can serve as members of the FEPC, but they, alongside other members, must recuse themselves from decisions if they have a conflict of interest. The FEPC Chair has final decision-making authority for when members must recuse themselves.

SECTION 3 - FEPC OFFICERS

- A. Chairperson
  - 1. The FEPC chair shall be appointed by the GSS on the third regular meeting of the GSS following the Executive Election, or when the position shall fall vacant.
  - 2. The FEPC chair shall be trained before taking the position by the previous chair.
  - 3. The FEPC chair shall not be an elected Senator of the GSS, or any compensated member of Student Government.
  - 4. The FEPC chair shall call all meetings of the FEPC.
  - 5. The FEPC chair shall be responsible for coordinating all election related activities, and assuring that these guidelines are upheld at all times.
  - 6. In electronic ballot elections, when real time results are submitted to the FEPC chair before polls have closed, no preliminary results may be released by the chair,

- or any member of the FEPC until such time that voting has officially ceased.
7. The FEPC chair shall provide candidates with unofficial results as soon as they become available. The election shall be certified by the FEPC chair within one week of the results being verified.
  8. The FEPC chair shall perform other such duties as directed by the GSS.

SECTION 4 - FEPC MEMBER OBLIGATIONS

- A. Members of the FEPC shall be obligated to:
  1. Attend all meetings of the FEPC that are called by the FEPC Chair.
  2. Assist the FEPC Chair in planning and conducting all elections, including manning voting booths and counting ballots
  3. Shall be in no way affiliated with a campaign who's election will be overseen by the FEPC, save one's own if running for a seat in the GSS.
  4. Shall be neutral at all times, and not advocate for or against any candidate or question who's election will be overseen by the FEPC, save one's own candidacy if running for a seat in the GSS.

SECTION 5 - FEPC JURISDICTION

- A. The FEPC shall have the authority to review any election held by an organization recognized by Student Government, and shall serve as the final arbiter in all electoral disputes under its jurisdiction.
- B. All groups who use the FEPC guidelines or any component of FEPC for any voting process shall fully abide by all FEPC guidelines.

SECTION 6 - ANNUAL REVIEWS

- A. The FEPC shall conduct annual reviews of the election practices of all Representative Boards and Community Associations in accordance with the UMSG Constitution. The FEPC shall determine if the Representative Board or Community Association's election practices provide proper safeguards and recourses should someone wish to challenge results.
- B. Requested Annual Reviews shall be held at the beginning of the academic year. Priority shall be given to those groups whose annual elections are held early in the year.
- C. Each Representative Board and Community Association shall submit an outline of their election process and practices to the FEPC for review. No Representative Board or Community Association shall hold annual elections until their annual review has been completed. Should a Representative Board or Community Association conduct elections without having completed their annual review the FEPC shall report the violation to the Senate for disciplinary action.
- D. Any Representative Board or Community Association who uses the FEPC to conduct their elections shall not be subject to an annual review.
- E. Should a Representative Board or Community Association not pass their annual review the FEPC shall provide them with a report outlining the reasons for not passing and suggestions on how to rectify the problems. A group may resubmit the outline of their election process and practices after changes have been made.

- F. Should a Representative Board or Community Association need to hold an election before they have passed their annual review they may request that the FEPC conduct the election.
- G. The Chair of the FEPC will determine if any member of the FEPC has a conflict of interest with regard to any Representative Board or Community Association annual review to be conducted by the FEPC and shall excuse that member from the review process.

ARTICLE II

STANDARD ELECTIONS

SECTION 1 - DEFINITION

- A. A standard election shall be defined as an election conducted by the FEPC that is administered on behalf of University of Maine Student Government, Inc. recognized Representative Boards and Community Associations. The applicability of the guidelines for other organizations recognized by Student Government shall be left to the discretion of the FEPC Chair on a case by case basis.

SECTION 2 - VOTER ELIGIBILITY

- A. All members in good standing of the constituency in which the election is being conducted for shall be eligible voters, unless otherwise specified in the group's constitution.
- B. Voters must present photo identification as requested by polling attendants to verify identification of the voter.

SECTION 3 - CANDIDATE ELIGIBILITY

- A. All members in good standing of the constituency in which the election is being conducted for shall be eligible candidates, unless otherwise specified in the organization's constitution.
- B. Nominations of candidates in standard elections must be made and seconded by members of the organization who is requesting election administration, unless otherwise specified in the organization's constitution.

SECTION 4 - TIMETABLE OF THE ELECTION

- A. Standard election dates shall be determined by the organization requesting FEPC election administration.
- B. Nominations for candidates in standard elections must be made no less than 3 weeks before the election date. The FEPC chair shall prepare a list of official candidates after nominations are closed.
- C. Write in candidates, who meet all other requirements for eligibility, will be considered eligible. This may need to be determined after the election.
- D. The FEPC chair shall provide candidates with unofficial results as soon as they become available. The election shall be certified by the FEPC chair within one week of the results being verified.
- E. Delays caused by the University of Maine communications infrastructure, including the electronic ballot server difficulties of more than 4 hours will result in cancellation and rescheduling of voting. A delay of less than 4 hours will be resolved by keeping polls open for a longer period of time equal to the length of the delay. The voting body shall be notified electronically by the FEPC Chairperson. The election, if postponed, shall occur no more than 2 business days after the original election date.

SECTION 5 - CAMPAIGNING

- A. Campaigning may begin immediately after nominations for candidates are closed.
  - 1. Campaigning shall be defined herein as purporting or endorsing stances on any issues affecting one's candidacy or encouraging potential voters for their vote.
    - a) Announcing candidacy for office shall not fall under the definition of campaigning.
- B. No candidate shall be able to accept any funds from any Student Government organization.
- C. No campaign material shall be allowed in any polling place twelve hours before the opening of the polls.
- D. Candidates will be responsible for the removal of all campaign material from the entire campus after the election has concluded.
- E. All candidates that campaign on campus must be in compliance with any rules or guidelines that apply to their candidacy as well as these FEPC guidelines. If found in violation of policies, a candidate may be declared ineligible.
- F. No campaign material representing a specific candidate or candidates shall be posted within 25 feet of University of Maine Student Government Offices.
- G. Any single candidate may not spend more than $100.00. In the case of in kind contributions the fair market value, as determined by FEPC, shall be applied toward this expenditure limit.
- H. All candidates shall be required to present a detailed account of current and future campaign expenditures, receipts and a summary accounting by 12:00 pm two (2) business days before the election. Failure to do so shall result in immediate candidate ineligibility.
- I. The FEPC shall review all candidate expenditure receipts and summaries. Any expenditure over the limits shall cause the FEPC Chairperson to consider disqualifying a candidate.

SECTION 6 - THE BALLOT

- A. The order of names on the ballot shall be determined by a publicly held lottery at the candidates meeting, no less than one week before the election date. The FEPC Chairperson will notify candidates of the drawing but it is the choice of the candidate to be in person or not.
- B. There shall be no indication of party affiliation on the ballots, unless stated otherwise in the organization's constitution.
- C. Full control of the format, production and distribution of ballots shall be in the hands of the FEPC.
- D. Ballots shall be disposed of no earlier than 24 hours after the swearing in of the winning candidates. A record of the election returns will be approved by the FEPC and be kept on file in the Student Government office. This will serve as the permanent record of the election results after the ballots have been disposed of.
- E. Ballots shall include a field for write-in candidates.

SECTION 7 - POLLING PLACES

- A. There shall be one ballot box at each polling place, unless otherwise specified in the organization's constitution. On or near each ballot box there shall be a sign displayed which reads: "VOTE HERE FOR _____" in which the blank section is filled by the position being elected.
- B. Poll attendants shall remain completely neutral, and shall not give information out to prospective voters other than the names of the candidates.
- C. Information sheets, including each candidate's picture and biography, shall be available at all polling places. This information may be provided by the candidates and will be approved by the FEPC.
- D. Polls must be open for at least two hours at each location for election results to be considered valid.
- E. No ballot box will be left unattended for any reason at any time; else the election shall be voided and conducted again as soon as possible.

- F. No candidate shall campaign within 50 feet of the polling place.
- G. All appointments to work at polling places are subject to the discretion of the FEPC Chairperson.

SECTION 8 - VOTING

- A. Voter eligibility shall be determined before any person shall be able to place a vote.
- B. Each voter will be allowed to vote only once. To ensure this policy, a voter list of all eligible voters shall be prepared before the election and maintained throughout the election. When a person votes, they shall be marked on the voter list, to ensure they are not allowed to vote again.
- C. Each ballot shall be completed and given to a poll attendant, who shall fold the ballot and place it in the ballot box.

SECTION 9 - BALLOT COUNTING

- A. Ballot counting shall commence within 72 hours after the closing of the last polling place, at a publicly announced location.
- B. Counting shall be conducted by the FEPC members.
- C. Each individual shall be allowed one ballot counting observer, who cannot be a candidate. This observer's name shall be submitted in writing two business days in advance of the election.
- D. During the counting of ballots, there shall be no admittance into the designated counting place by anyone other than FEPC members and observers.
- E. All doubtful ballots shall be set aside, and not counted, until the end of the first count.
- F. Upon the conclusion of the first count, the disposition of all doubtful ballots shall be decided upon by the commission, and the results will be added to the tallies.

SECTION 10 - ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULTS

- A. Unofficial results may be announced at the conclusion of ballot counting. If electronic ballots are used, preliminary results may not be revealed until the voting period ends and the ballots have been counted.
- B. Certification of the election shall occur once the results are published, signed by the FEPC Chairperson, and notarized by a certified notary public.
- C. Certification of the election must take place as soon as possible following the passing of the deadline for the election being contested, given no complaints have been filed.
- D. If complaints are filed, certification of the election shall take place after the disputes have been fully resolved.
- E. At least two copies of the official returns shall be kept in student government files.

SECTION 11 - COMPLAINTS, RECOUNTS AND HEARINGS

- A. All activity fee paying undergraduate students registered at the University of Maine are eligible to file a complaint.
- B. If the complaint is against the FEPC or any member of the FEPC, the complaint shall be filed to the GSS via the Student Government, Inc. office.
- C. All complaints should properly outline who is in violation so the complaint can be heard accordingly.
- D. All complaints must be filed between 12:00am of the first day of campaigning and 12:00pm of the second business day following the closing of the polls.
- E. Complaints filed to the FEPC shall be reported to the GSS and dealt with accordingly.
- F. All complaints will contain at least the following information:
  - 1. Name of the alleged violator.

2. The specific violation.
  3. Where and when alleged violation occurred.
  4. Evidence, if any.
  5. Names of witnesses and where they can be contacted.
- G. All complaints will be signed by the person(s) making the complaint.
- H. Complainant(s) will be available to FEPC for purposes of conducting investigations and hearings.
- I. FEPC Chairperson will be responsible for contacting the complainant and alleged violator immediately following initial ballot count(s) for verification of complaint.
- J. No disclosure of complaints will be made until verified by the FEPC Chairperson by contacting the complainant and the alleged violator.
- K. If any complaints are filed, the first hearing shall be held within two business days following the deadline for filing complaints.
- L. The hearings shall be held by the FEPC until all complaints are acted upon. The agenda for hearings shall be as follows:
1. Call to order.
  2. Statement by the Chair.
  3. Reading of the first complaint filed.
  4. The complainant, or his/her representative, presents cases.
  5. The alleged violator, or his/her representative, responds.
  6. Repeat 3-5 for all complaints.
  7. Set the time of the next hearing.
  8. Adjourn.
- M. All hearings shall be open to the public, but full control shall be reserved in the FEPC.
- N. The FEPC shall discuss complaints of alleged rules violation in a closed meeting; voting on complaints of alleged rules violation will be done by a roll call vote at an open meeting. After all complaints filed have been heard and acted upon by the FEPC, election results will be validated and publicly announced.
- O. If FEPC is accused of violating its guidelines, the GSS will serve as the judiciary body, and shall follow the same procedures.
- P. All candidates shall have the right to request a recount by submitting in person, a written and signed statement requesting such a recount within 24 hours of public notification of the results.
1. The candidates involved may be present at the recount.
- Q. All candidates shall be informed of the results immediately following the recount.
- R. The results shall be announced within one hour of the conclusion of all necessary FEPC complaint hearings.

SECTION 12 - INAUGURATION OF NEW OFFICERS

- A. For standard elections, inauguration of new officers will be planned and conducted by the organization involved in the election.

ARTICLE III

SENATE ELECTIONS

SECTION 1 - DEFINITION

- A. A senate election shall be defined as an election conducted by the FEPC that is administered on behalf of the General Student Senate, to determine its members.

SECTION 2 - VOTER ELIGIBILITY

- A. All members in good standing of the activity fee paying, undergraduate student body shall be eligible to vote.
- B. Voters must present photo identification as requested by polling attendants to verify identification of the voter.

SECTION 3 - CANDIDATE ELIGIBILITY

- A. All members in good standing of the activity fee paying, undergraduate student body who meet the Student Government constitutional requirements for candidacy, and hold a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA (not including the semester of candidacy) shall be eligible to run for an executive election.
- B. Nominations of candidates in Senate elections must be made by each candidate gaining at least 50 signatures within their constituency.
- C. Nomination petitions must be turned in according to the timeline to have the candidate placed on the ballot.

SECTION 4 - TIMETABLE OF THE ELECTION

- A. The Chair shall create an Election Timetable that details nomination processes as well as nomination, election, runoff election (if necessary), and ballot counting due dates. This timetable shall be submitted to the Commission for review. Only after the Commission has voted with a simple majority in favor of the timetable shall it be accepted.
- B. Four weeks prior to the election, for the term of one week, candidates shall be allowed to complete nomination papers. Paperwork shall be due by 5:00pm seven (7) days following the initial availability of nomination forms. Advertising promoting the availability of nomination papers must include at least two (2) advertisements in the campus newspaper (at no less than 1/4 page each) with one posted the Monday prior to the availability of papers and the other posted the day of availability, at least three (3) emails on the UMaine G-mail system, and at least 50 posters hung in various campus locations. These are minimum advertising requirements.
- C. One day shall be allowed for elections. The polls shall be open from 9am until 5pm that day.
- D. This timetable allows four weeks and one day. Exact dates of the timetable must be provided to the General Student Senate by the FEPC Chairperson (or the Vice President of Student Government, shall the FEPC Chairperson position be vacant) at the first meeting of the General Student Senate in the fall semester.
- E. Delays caused by the University of Maine communications infrastructure, including the electronic ballot server difficulties of more than 4 hours will result in cancellation and rescheduling of voting. A delay of less than 4 hours will be resolved by keeping polls open for a longer period of time equal to the length of the delay. The voting body shall be notified electronically by the FEPC Chairperson. The election, if postponed, shall occur no more than 2 business days after the original election date.

SECTION 5 - CAMPAIGNING

- A. Campaigning may begin immediately upon availability of nomination papers.
  - 1. Campaigning shall be defined herein as purporting or endorsing stances on any issues affecting one's candidacy or encouraging potential voters for their vote.
    - a. Announcing candidacy for office shall not fall under the definition of campaigning.
- B. No candidate shall be able to accept any funds from any Student Government organization.
- C. No campaign material shall be allowed in any polling place 12 hours before the opening of the polls. It is the primary responsibility of the candidate to remove campaign materials from polling places. Should campaign materials remain during that time period, the FEPC shall remove and destroy all campaign material. Any violations shall cause the FEPC Chairperson to consider disqualification.
- D. Candidates will be responsible for the removal of all campaign material from the entire campus after the election has concluded.
- E. All candidates that campaign on campus must be in compliance with any rules or guidelines that apply to their candidacy as well as these FEPC guidelines. If found in violation of policies, a candidate may be declared ineligible.
- F. No campaign material representing a specific candidate or candidates shall be posted within 25 feet of University of Maine Student Government Offices.
- G. Any single candidate may not spend more than $25.00 during Senate elections. In the case of in-kind contributions the fair market value, as determined by FEPC, shall be applied toward this expenditure limit.
- H. All candidates shall be required to present a detailed account of current and projected future campaign expenditures, receipts and a summary accounting by 12:00pm one (1) business day before the election. Failure to do so shall result in immediate candidate ineligibility. This requirement shall be considered null and void if the seat the candidate is running for is uncontested.
- I. The FEPC shall review all candidate expenditure receipts and summaries. Any expenditure over the limits shall cause the FEPC Chairperson to consider disqualifying a candidate.

SECTION 6 - THE BALLOT

- A. The order of names on the ballot shall be determined by a publicly held lottery at the candidates meeting, no less than one week prior to elections. The FEPC Chairperson will notify candidates of the drawing but it is the choice of the candidate to be in person or not.
- B. There shall be no indication of party affiliation on the ballots.
- C. Full control of the format, production and distribution of ballots shall be in the hands of the FEPC.
- D. Ballots shall be disposed of no earlier than 24 hours after the swearing in of the winning candidates. A record of the election returns will be approved by the FEPC and be kept on file in the Student Government office. This will serve as the permanent record of the election results after the ballots have been disposed of.
- E. Ballots shall include a field for write-in candidates

SECTION 7 - POLLING PLACES

- A. There shall be one ballot box for each Senate seat being contested at each polling place. On or near each ballot box there shall be a sign displayed which reads: "VOTE HERE FOR YOUR GENERAL STUDENT SENATOR".
- B. Poll attendants shall remain completely neutral, and shall not give information out to prospective voters other than the names of the candidates.

- C. Information sheets, including each candidate's picture and biography, shall be available at all polling places. This information may be provided by the candidates and will be approved by the FEPC.
- D. FEPC is responsible to ensure that ballot boxes are empty and secure before the election begins.
- E. No ballot box will be left unattended for any reason at any time.
- F. No candidate shall campaign within 50 feet of any polling places.
- G. All appointments to work at polling places are subject to the discretion of the FEPC Chairperson.

SECTION 8 - VOTING

- A. If a Senate seat is uncontested, the election for that seat shall be cancelled by the FEPC, and all candidates for that seat shall be sworn in with all newly elected Senators.
- B. Voter eligibility shall be determined before any person shall be able to place a vote.
- C. Each voter will be allowed to vote only once. To ensure this policy, a voter list of all eligible voters shall be prepared before the election and maintained throughout the election. When a person votes, they shall be marked on the voter list, to ensure they are not allowed to vote again.
- D. Voters shall be allowed to vote for multiple candidates on one ballot, not exceeding the number of seats available.
- E. Each ballot shall be completed and given to a poll attendant, who shall fold the ballot and place it in the ballot box.

SECTION 9 – BALLOT COUNTING

- A. Ballot counting shall commence within 24 hours after the closing of the last polling place, at a publicly announced location.
- B. Counting shall be conducted by the FEPC members.
- C. Each candidate shall be allowed one ballot counting observer, who may not be a candidate.
- D. During the counting of ballots, there shall be no admittance into the designated counting place by anyone other than FEPC members and observers.
- E. All doubtful ballots shall be set aside, and not counted, until the end of the first count.
- F. Upon the conclusion of the first count, the disposition of all doubtful ballots shall be decided upon by the commission, and the results will be added to the tallies.
- G. The winners of Senate seats shall be those candidates who were the top finishers equal to that of the number of available seats. In the event of any ties, a run off election shall occur at a date agreed upon by the FEPC.

SECTION 10 - ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULTS

- A. Unofficial results may be announced at the conclusion of ballot counting. If the electronic ballot is being used, preliminary results may not be revealed until the voting period ends and the ballots have been counted.
- B. Certification of the election shall occur once the results are published, signed by the FEPC Chairperson, and notarized by a certified notary public.
- C. Certification of the election must take place as soon as possible following the passing of the deadline for the election being contested, given no complaints have been filed.
- D. If complaints are filed, certification of the election shall take place after the disputes have been fully resolved.
- E. At least two copies of the official returns shall be kept in student government files.

SECTION 11 - COMPLAINTS, RECOUNTS AND HEARINGS

- A. In the event of a delay of the election certification, the session of the General Student Senate shall not be dissolved in favor of the newly elected session until such time as all complaints have been dealt with.
- B. All activity fee paying undergraduate students registered at the University of Maine are eligible to file a complaint.
- C. If the complaint of against the FEPC or any member of the FEPC, the complaint shall be filed to the GSS via the Student Government, Inc. office.
- D. All complaints should properly outline who is in violation so the complaint can be heard accordingly.
- E. All complaints must be filed between 12:00am of the first day of campaigning and 12:00pm of the second business day following the closing of the polls.
- F. Complaints filed to the FEPC shall be reported to the GSS and dealt with accordingly.
- G. All complaints will contain at least the following information:
  - 1. Name of the alleged violator.
  - 2. The specific violation.
  - 3. Where and when alleged violation occurred.
  - 4. Evidence, if any.
  - 5. Names of witnesses and where they can be contacted.
- H. All complaints will be signed by the person(s) making the complaint.
- I. Complainant will be available to FEPC for purposes of conducting investigations hearings.
- J. FEPC Chairperson will be responsible for contacting the complainant and alleged violator immediately following initial ballot count(s) for verification of complaint.
- K. No disclosure of complaints will be made until verified by the FEPC Chairperson by contacting the complainant(s) and the alleged violator.
- L. If any complaints are filed, the first hearing shall be held within two business days following the deadline for filing complaints.
- M. The hearings shall be held by the FEPC until all complaints are acted upon. The agenda for hearings shall be as follows:
  - 1. Call to order.
  - 2. Statement by the Chair.
  - 3. Reading of the first complaint filed.
  - 4. The complainant, or his/her representative, presents cases.
  - 5. The alleged violator, or his/her representative, responds.
  - 6. Repeat 3-5 for all complaints.
  - 7. Set the time of the next hearing.
  - 8. Adjourn.
- N. All hearings shall be open to the public, but full control shall be reserved in the FEPC.
- O. The FEPC shall discuss complaints of alleged rules violation in a closed meeting; voting on complaints of alleged rules violation will be done by a roll call vote at an open meeting. After all complaints filed have been heard and acted upon by the FEPC, election results will be validated and publicly announced.
- P. If the FEPC is accused of violating its guidelines, the GSS will serve as the judiciary body, and shall follow the same procedures.
  - 1. The GSS will hold a Special Meeting of the GSS to conduct the hearing.
  - 2. The President of the General Student Senate shall inform each member of the FEPC individually via Email twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the Special Meeting of the GSS.

- Q. All candidates shall have the right to request a recount by submitting in person, a written and signed statement requesting such a recount within 24 hours of public notification of the results. A recount shall consist of verifying the electronic tally of votes with IT, and a recount of paper ballots.
  - 1. The candidates involved may be present at the recount.
- R. The candidates involved may be present at the recount.

- E. Four weeks prior to the election shall be allowed for campaigning. Candidates must adhere to the University of Maine rules and regulations around solicitation lobbying in indoor spaces, such as the Union.
- F. Five days shall be allowed for elections. The (electronic options for the student body to vote shall be open from 9:00 am on the Monday of election week until 5:00 pm on Friday. There shall be an option for in person voting on one of those days for members of the student body who are unable to electronically vote.
- G. This timetable allows four weeks and five days. The exact dates of the timetable must be provided to the General Student Senate by the FEPC Chairperson (or the Vice President of Student Government, shall the FEPC Chairperson position be vacant) prior to the start of the Spring semester.
- H. Candidates on the ballot shall deliver a platform statement before the GSS, and such other persons as may wish to attend the regular meeting of the GSS held immediately prior to the election.
- I. Candidates may withdraw their names from nomination up to seven (7) days before the election. Candidates may also withdraw their names after the election, should any challenges arise causing a potential re-vote or other election issue.
- J. Delays caused by the University of Maine communications infrastructure, including electronic ballot server difficulties of more than two full days of election week will result in cancellation and rescheduling of voting. A delay of less than two full days will not affect the election timetable. The voting body shall be notified electronically by the FEPC Chairperson. The election, if rescheduled, shall take place the following full academic week.

SECTION 5 - CAMPAIGNING

- A. Campaigning may begin immediately upon availability of nomination papers. Candidates are permitted to collect up to two hundred (200) signatures from eligible voters in support of their candidacy.
- B. During this signature collection phase, candidates are also allowed to introduce their campaign platform to the general student population. For the purpose of this regulation, 'campaigning' is defined as any act that involves asserting or advocating positions on matters relevant to one's candidacy or actively encouraging potential voters to support them through means beyond personal communication (word of mouth).
- C. Prior to the official campaign period, candidates are permitted to discuss their potential candidacy and share their preliminary ideas for their campaign with others. However, these communications must not extend beyond personal interactions or word-of-mouth communication.
- D. The use of campaign materials such as social media posts, posters, articles, and interviews is exclusively reserved for the official campaign period, as defined by the election guidelines. Candidates are expected to refrain from deploying these campaign tools until the authorized campaign period begins. No candidate shall be able to accept any funds from any Student Government organization.
- E. No campaign material shall be allowed in any polling place 12 hours before the opening of the polls. It is the primary responsibility of the candidate to remove campaign materials from polling places. Should campaign materials remain during that time period, the FEPC shall remove and destroy all campaign material.
- F. Candidates will be responsible for the removal of all campaign material from the entire campus after the election has concluded. All candidates that campaign on campus must be in compliance with any rules or guidelines that apply to their candidacy as well as these FEPC guidelines. If found in violation of policies, a candidate may be declared ineligible by the FEPC.
- G. No campaign material representing a specific candidate or candidates shall be posted within 25 feet of University of Maine Student Government Offices.
- H. Any Single candidate may not spend more than $100.00 during Executive elections. In the case of in-kind contributions, the fair market value, as determined by FEPC, shall be applied toward this expenditure limit.
- I. Candidates running jointly may share campaign expenses, and the total spending on any campaign element, such as a logo, shall not exceed $200.00 collectively. Each candidate, when pooling resources for a shared campaign element, must ensure that their individual contributions to that element do not exceed $100.00. In other words, the combined spending on the shared campaign element must not exceed $200.00.
- J. All candidates shall be required to present a detailed account of current and projected future campaign expenditures, receipts and a summary accounting by 12:00pm one day before the election. Failure to do so shall result in immediate candidate ineligibility. Another such report may be filed one (1) day before the election by 12:00pm if any unreported expenditures were made after the first report was filed, though if no such contributions are made there is no requirement to file an additional report. Write-in candidates must file their report by 5:00pm the day of the election.
- K. The FEPC shall review all candidate expenditure receipts and summaries. Any expenditure over the limits shall cause the FEPC Chairperson to consider disqualifying a candidate.
