Flag Ceremony - 12:00 PM - A Flag Raising Ceremony will be held on the mall in front of Fogler Library to celebrate UMaine veterans. Army and Navy ROTC will raise the US Flag and POW/MIA flag in honor of the veteran community.

Green Zone Training - 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM - Green Zone training is for faculty, staff, and students that wish to learn more about the student veteran experience. Its goals are to educate members of the UMaine community to know more about the issues and concerns faced by student veterans and to identify individuals who are available to assist this population. (Via Zoom)

Virtual Veterans Center Lunch - 12:00 PM - Lunch vouchers available to student veterans on campus (limit 50)

Veterans Day Recognized - No Classes - Veterans Day (originally known as Armistice Day) is a federal holiday in the United States observed annually on November 11, for honoring military veterans, that is, persons who have served in the United States Armed Forces. It coincides with other holidays including Armistice Day and Remembrance Day which are celebrated in other countries that mark the anniversary of the end of World War I.

Understanding Veteran Suicide - 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM - Presentation by undergraduate recipient of the Susan J. Hunter Award Teagan LaPiere. Mr. LaPiere, a military veteran himself, researches why non-combat deployed veterans have a higher rate of suicide than combat-deployed veterans. He hopes that this research will indicate factors that lead to military suicide, so policies for veteran mental health can be changed and improved. (Via Zoom)

Senior Art Exhibition: Post Traumatic - 12:00 PM - Senior Art Exhibition project Post Traumatic by student Kara Arey will be on display in the Memorial Room beginning at noon on Friday, November 13th. The project is a sculpture about PTSD and how it feels to have it. Ms. Arey gathered and incorporated small slips of paper from students in the VETS center from those who have been diagnosed with PTSD. Students wrote a word or a short phrase that described what PTSD feels like for them, or emotions it evokes in them.

UMVA Pub Crawl - Evening