Foreign Language Experience  6 credit hours
- International Affairs majors who are not international students must take and pass the Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) with a rating of Intermediate (Low, Mid, or High) or better.
- Students are responsible for paying for these tests.
- Minimum preparation for these tests is generally six credits at the 300-level or above in French or Spanish, or in the recommended equivalent in the VOX sequence of Critical Languages on campus.
- Learning abroad experience, including study abroad, also offers opportunities for language training.
- International students are permitted to meet the language requirement with their TOEFL score, but are encouraged to undertake further foreign language study.
- Students cannot meet the language requirement in their native language.

A “C” or better is required in all International Affairs courses counting towards the major, regardless of concentration.

Check the Undergraduate Catalog for complete details pertaining to the International Affairs Major.

The International Affairs Minor
The International Affairs minor consists of a grade of C or better in:

1. INA 101, Introduction to International Affairs
2. One other IA core curriculum course from this list: ANT 102, ECO 121, HTY 241, or POS 120
3. Three primary courses and one secondary course from a single thematic concentration
4. Two semesters in the same foreign language or study abroad. For students who study abroad, at least one course must be taught in the host language. Students whose first language is not English may meet the foreign language requirement with their TOEFL score.
